Itinerary and Description of Services:

Day 1: Cusco (3,350m // 10,990 feet) - Wiñaywayna (2,650m // 8,694 feet) - Machupicchu (2,450m // 8,038 feet)

- Early morning transfer to Train Station
- Early departure on train from Cusco, passing through the highland plains to later descend into the Sacred Valley of the Incas, from where we follow the course of the Vilcanota (or Urubamba) river until reaching Km. 104 of the train line. We leave the train and cross the river at the point where the archaeological complex of Chachabamba is located (2,250 m // 7,381 feet). From there we ascend for approximately 3 hours to reach the fascinating archaeological group of Wiñaywayna (2,650m // 8,694 feet) where we partake and enjoy a picnic.
- In the afternoon we walk along the cloud forest toward the sun gate (Intipunku) from where we appreciate our very first panoramic –and very spectacular- view of Machupicchu.
- A short walk through the ruins brings us to the point where we board the bus that will take us down to the town of Aguas Calientes.
- There, we can (optionally) visit the Hot Springs
- Number of hours of the trek: 6 hours
- Lodging: Overnight in the Hotel

Day 2: - Machupicchu (2,450m // 8,038 feet) - Cusco

- After breakfast we board the first bus up to Machupicchu to enjoy the sunrise before the arrival of the tourist groups from Cusco. We tour this marvelous site led by our Guide. The rest of the morning is free to explore the site on your own.
- In the afternoon we descend to Aguas Calientes and return by train to Cusco
- Train from town of Aguas Calientes to Cusco
- Transfer from Train Station of San Pedro Cusco to Hotel.
- Number of visiting hours in Machu Picchu: 5h to 6h
